Sir:

in the record:

Comments begin on page 2 of this paper.

Comments

In the first paragraph of the examiner's statement of reasons for allowance, the examiner purports to recite what the application teaches in claim 1. Applicants respectfully assert that the Examiner's recitation of claim 1 is not accurate in all respects. Applicants hereby submit an amendment to the first paragraph of the examiner's statement of reasons for allowance to accurately reflect the recitations of claim 1. The Examiner's statements are repeated below with Applicants amendments shown in underline and strikeout form.

Regarding claim 1, the present application teaches a method of managing mobility of a mobile station across a WLAN and WWAN in which an MSC has been provisioned to act as a serving MSC for the WLAN. The application teaches the mobile issuing a registration request to the serving MSC for the WLAN, in response, ~~to the serving MSC for the WLAN causing MSC for the~~ WWAN to recognize that the mobile station is registered with the serving MSC for the WLAN and that the mobile station is no longer served by a prior MSC and mobile station communicating to entities outside of the WLAN by communicating with the WLAN via WLAN protocol and the WLAN communicating with the WWAN via the serving MSC for the WLAN as specifically mentioned on claim 1.

Respectfully submitted,
Sundar, Rangamani, et al.
